CAPT. PHILIP ACCUSED BY EVANS OF SHOWING COWARDICE DURING THE BATTLE OF SANTIAGO, WAS BRAVELY DEFENDED BY SCHLEY.

STOKES IS SINKING. MAY DIE. AT ANY TIME.

Slayer of Jim Fisk, in Semi-Comatose Condition, Growing Weaker.

Edward S. Stokes is in a dying condition today in the home of his sister, Mrs. Mary McNutt, No. 731 St. Nicholas avenue.

For several days it has been known that his end was near. All hope of his recovery was given up a week ago.

Last night he had a sinking spell, and this morning was very weak.

At his home it was stated that he might not survive the day.

"All that medical science could do has been exerted in Mr. Stokes' behalf," said Dr. Billings to-day. "He is a victim of Bright's disease. For two weeks he has been in an advanced stage of illness. He is in a very serious condition."

At the bedside of the dying man for days. The sufferer has called for Denniet so often that the valet has not been able to leave the room.

Stokes is haunted by the face of Jim Fisk, whom he killed more than a quarter of a century ago. Day and night the memory of his victim is always before him, and as his delirium has increased the nightmare has become unbearable.

It is only when the faithful valet is in his side that Stokes has any peace at all, and when Denniet leaves him he raves and pleads for the return of the one man in whom he seems to have confidence.

Stokes is a mental as well as a physthe cause of the trouble that befell Stokes. He is now living in contentment in Europe. She is prosperous and reports say that she is apparently unaffected by the tragedy.

MYSTERY IN ARREST OF SEATON, POLICE HINT.

Banker Hugh Chisholm's Name Used
Without Authority
to Lizzie Miller.

Charles Seaton, of No. 3 West Forty-seventh street, was arraigned in Yorkville Court this afternoon on a charge of attempted larceny. The complainant, Miss Lizzie Miller, of No. 207 West One Hundred and Twelfth street, charged that Seaton had tried to induce her to give $200 as security if he would secure her a position.

Seaton advertised last Sunday for a private secretary, and represented himself to applicants as an officer of the Western Ornamental and Onyx Company, of which he said Mr. Hugh Chisholm, a banker, of No. 20 Broad street, was President.

Mr. Chisholm, the police say, has no connection with the company. The detectives acted very mysteriously in court, intimating that it was an important arrest, and had Magistrate Brann postpone the case against Seaton until tomorrow—without hearing evidence.

Capt. Titus admitted that he was making an investigation of Seaton and hinted at sensational disclosures, but said the case against the prisoner had not been sufficiently cleared up to warrant his giving the facts publicly.

Miss Miller was to have paid the $200 to Seaton at 11 o'clock to-day, but she became suspicious and reported the matter to the police. When she went to see him she was accompanied by a detective.

Mr. Chisholm when seen said that he did not know Seaton and never heard of the "Western Ornamental and Onyx Company."

"It is a fraud of the rank kind," he said. "The fellow followed the detectives to run the trap down and exposed the swindle. I can't imagine why he used my name. I don't believe I ever saw him in my life."
